PUBLIC LANDS

The following tables provide information about public lands (that have trails) in West Virginia including:

1. Wildlife Management Areas
2. City Parks
3. County Parks
4. State Parks
5. Federal Parks & Lands
6. Private Lands with Public Access Trails

WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREAS

These public lands, managed by the West Virginia Division of Natural Resources, are available for hunting and fishing activities and range in size from 50 through 23,000 acres. They are open year round.

Management programs are funded through the sale of state hunting, trapping and fishing licenses, as well as from taxes on the purchase of hunting and fishing equipment.

The brochure: “A Guide to Wildlife Management Areas in West Virginia” may be obtained from: West Virginia Division of Natural Resources, Wildlife Resources Section, 1900 Kanawha Blvd., E., Charleston, WV 25305; (304) 558-2771.
